Retailers Plan to Hold "Come and Get It" Banquet

President Rudderham Finds a Way to be More Informal and Original Than Last Year—Association Favors Bridge Traffic Through Abel Street—Committee to Formulate Advertising Plans.

A "Come and Get It" banquet, which is to be even more informal and original than the dinner held last year by the Retail Merchants Association, was decided on at a well attended meeting of retailers at the Elks' Club Wednesday evening. Last year the retailers held a "bargain sale of food" at the Eagle Hotel and the demand for tickets was so great that the sale had to be stopped nearly a week before the banquet. This year the banquet will be held at the Elks' Club, the program along lines suggested by President W. H. Rudderham, and it will again be necessary to limit the number of tickets sold, but not to so small a number as last year.

Thursday, March 16, was fixed as the date. It was decided whether to permit one four-minute speech or have two two-minute speeches, and a committee of arrangements was appointed with full power to sell tickets, engage talent and run the whole show, provided there are no sermons or lectures. The committee consists of Raphael Cohen, Louis Stock, Jacob Greenwald, Sam Bernstein, Jr., M. H. Herzog, William Dugan, John Mack, T. A. Bennett, Ira V. D. Warren, M. Morgenstern, C. H. Miller and R. E. Craft.

How to handle sales days, the establishing of a weekly "suburban day," and various other topics of interest and benefit to retailers were discussed.

Jacob Greenwald, Louis Stock and S. E. Elgin were appointed a committee to present to the Board of public works a resolution adopted on motion of Mr. Greenwald that traffic over the bridge be diverted to Broadway by way of Abel street and urge that this action be taken. Mr. Greenwald's resolution was adopted, after an extended debate without any dissenting vote.

An advertising campaign was informally discussed and a committee composed of John Mack, C. H. Lovin, Sam Bernstein, Jr., Louis Stock and President W. H. Rudderham was appointed to formulate plans and report at the next meeting, which will be held in two weeks.

RUTH TO TOUR WITH YANKEES

Ends Vaudeville Engagement and Is Believed to Have Come to Agreement With His Team—Goes to Hot Springs Monday.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Feb. 16.—Though he hasn't signed for 1922, Babe Ruth apparently has a fairly accurate idea of where he stands with the Yankees club. Otherwise he would hardly abandon his vaudeville tour at this time with approximately three months intervening before he can appear in a championship game.

Ruth's decision to close his vaudeville tour Saturday night in Milwaukee, is not surprising, because he will need to get to work right away if he is to be featured in the first exhibition game which is scheduled for March 12 at New Orleans. Up to a week or two ago, Babe contemplated extending his tour and deferring his training operations until April. Something has happened to make him available for the March exhibitions in the south.

Bambino announced his plans in a letter received at the Yankee offices yesterday. He closes his act at the end of this week and leaves for Hot Springs Monday.

Owing to the salary deadlock which prevails between the Yankees, Cubs and their star pitcher aggregation, the Hot Springs aggregation will include only Walter Hoyt and Mike McNally. Hoyt signed his new contract Tuesday and McNally accepted terms yesterday.

In an official statement issued yesterday, no mention is made of Bob Shawkey, Carl Mays, Sam Jones, Joe Bush or Harry Harper. These pitchers—with the possible exception of Harper, who has applied for a leave of absence—may therefore be classed as holdouts.

ROTARY CLUB TOLD OF NEED FOR PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

William H. Ball, of Springfield, Mass., chairman of the executive committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, was the speaker at the Rotary luncheon on Wednesday. Mr. Ball urged the necessity of physical fitness as a basis for efficiency in life. Schemes and plans amount to nothing, he said, unless realized in deeds and physical weakness weakened the usefulness of the most powerful intellect. He made a plea for physical as well as mental education.

Chairman Lewis of the Education Committee announced that at the evening meeting next week there would be a program of unusual excellence, with the best speakers and the best vocal and instrumental music in the city.

P. T. A. School No. 1.

The ladies of Parent-Teachers' Association No. 1 have started a membership drive. Owing to the storm the committee is unable to finish its house-to-house canvass at present, but a cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies of that district to join the association. The meetings are held the first Thursday in each month at 3:30 o'clock at the school.

Basketball at Hot Springs.

The East Kingston basketball team defeated the Saugerties team at the former's court on Tuesday evening. On Friday evening of this week St. Peter's team of Kingston will be the opposition. The newly organized East Kingston club lines up with McGraw and Macken, forwards; Denton, center; Acker and O'Brien, guards.

GRIP STILL VERY PREVALENT HERE

No Abatement in Number of Cases of the Disease Here—Night Hundred Cases Last Month and the Same Number This Month—All Doctors Busy.

In January it was estimated that there were fully eight hundred cases of the grip in Kingston. There has been no decrease and at the present time there are that number of cases in the city.

Physicians are finding when called to a house to treat a grip patient that as a rule the other members of the family also become ill with the grip. Fortunately the form of the disease is mild, with but very few pneumonia cases being reported. The grip this season bears no resemblance to the epidemic "flu" of a few years ago which caused so many deaths in Kingston and throughout the country.

Every doctor in the city is being kept busy attending to the sick calls and it is long after hours before many of them find time to retire for the night. As one physician said today "If it was not for my automobile I don't know where I would be." He said that if compelled to go back to the old days of the horse and wagon it would be utterly impossible for the physician of today to look after his practice and he would have to turn down many a sick call.

As the grip is not a reportable disease it is of course impossible to state just how many cases there are in Kingston, but judging from what physicians say the number stated is not far out of the way.

PASTOR IS THIEF AFTER CHURCH TRIAL

His Woman Accused Expelled From Church.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Feb. 15.—After a "trial" which extended into the early morning hours, during which women became hysterical and left, the Rev. George Caleb Moor was given a vote of confidence by his congregation at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church today.

Mrs. Jesse W. Day, who brought charges against her pastor, was expelled from the church by a vote of 64 to 43. She immediately announced her intention to appeal the case of her dismissal to the Baptist convention.

Elderly women were the first to leave while Mrs. Grace Huniston, a lawyer and sister of Mrs. Day, read the charges against the pastor. Subsequently many younger women left, some in a hysterical state.

A strong resolution, assuring Dr. Moor of their "love, esteem and loyalty," was adopted by the parishioners.

OVERCOAT THIEVES AT TROY POLICE SCHOOL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Troy, N. Y., Feb. 16.—For the second time within a week, overcoat thieves have worked with success at the state police school here.

While fifty young men, who are studying to be state troopers, were taking it easy, thieves entered the school and made off with one of the most expensive overcoats in the place. From now on the embryo policemen are going to keep their coats under lock and key.

Morocco Rate Reduced.

London, Feb. 16.—The minimum rate of discount of the bank of England was reduced to 4½ per cent today.

Harding Favors Sale Tax To Pay Soldiers' Bonus

Washington, Feb. 16.—President Harding favors the imposition of a sales tax to pay a soldiers' bonus.

The administration's decision was made known to congress in a letter addressed today to Representative Fordney, Republican, Michigan, chairman of the house ways and means committee.

In his letter the president told congress that if the sales tax could not be enacted to finance cash payments to veterans of the World War, the bonus bill should be postponed.

"Let me repeat," the president said, "that I believe the American people will accept the levy of a general sales tax to meet the proposed bonus payment."

If congress will not adopt such a plan, it would be wise to let the legislation go over until there is a situation which will justify the large outlay.

The president called attention to the fact that the government is spending $400,000,000 a year for the relief of disabled veterans, and assured Chairman Fordney that "such delay (in the bonus) as will enable congress to act in prudence suggestion of unimpossibility or ingratitude."

Immediate abandonment of the eight point special tax plan proposed by the House ways and means committee to meet bonus payment was expected to be the first result of today's announcement of the administration's policy with regard to the bonus.

Efforts may still be made to force through a bond issue as a substitute for the house tax program, but administration forces, led by Senator Samuel, Republican, Utah, original sponsor of the sales tax, are expected to line up their forces to oppose it.

Worst Blizzard in Years Raging Off New Jersey Coast

Cape May, N. J., Feb. 16.—One of the worst blizzards in years is raging off the New Jersey capes, causing fears by navy men today that a submarine, scheduled to leave League Island Navy Yard last night for New London, may be caught in difficulties.

The coast guard cutter Kickapoo waits with full steam up, ready to respond to any distress signal.

Coast guard stations have doubled their patrols, all crews being held in the stations when not on patrols.

Captain Cresce, of the Cold Spring Life Saving Station, declares the storm is the worst in 20 years. A 40-mile gale is blowing. Farmers estimate that the roads will be impassable by nightfall. All trains are late and there is the utmost difficulty in keeping freight moving. Nine inches of snow have fallen.

Y. M. C. A. Drive Results In Record Membership

Over 300 More Senior Members Now Than in 1919 and 156 More Than Last Year—Boys' and Other Departments Show Healthy Activity and Auxiliary is One of Best.

The Central Young Men's Christian Association under the direction of the board of directors was anxious to secure a membership in this association which a city of this size would justify. The equipment and building is one that the citizens can well be proud of. In order to carry the work on successfully a permanent membership of at least one thousand members is needed. Through the cooperation of William C. DeWitt, who has been membership chairman for the past three years, the increase in membership has grown steadily. He believes the association is a tremendous asset in the city and for that reason he does not hesitate to secure the support of all business and professional men of this city. The organization is larger than the building and many men in joining do so because they are interested in promoting the work as much or perhaps even more than in using the privileges of the building. That is an altruistic spirit and one that makes the organization one of service. There has been a splendid spirit throughout the city as a whole in favor of the association and through the cooperation of all the work has gone on successfully.

The Y. M. C. A. is fortunate in having two Springfield College men to promote the work of the physical and boys' departments. Mr. Beck, the physical director, has taken hold of the work in a way that shows he understands his problems and has already made a host of friends among the young men and business men. The team coming from Springfield has already aroused interest in other things aside from basket ball.

The work of the boys' department has grown with tremendous interest under the direction of Chester R. Hall, who is also a Springfield man. The membership in this division is about 200 and is on the increase daily.

On account of the increased interest and the varied and instructive program that the association is constantly rendering a successful membership canvass has just been completed. Charles O'Connor accepted the chairmanship of this campaign and through the support of the young men and business men he has been able to successfully close the campaign with the largest membership the association has had in its senior department.

Including 26 guaranteed renewals the membership of the association on February 15th, stood 802 in the senior department. In February, 1919, the membership was 491; in February, 1921, it had increased to 547. The report for February 1922 is over 800, therefore making an increase of more than 300 in the senior department in the last three years.

The Young Men's Christian Association throughout the country have grown stronger in the past few years and the United Y. M. C. A. schools which is a correspondence course of various subjects reports over 25,000 students. One of the reasons of the splendid success of the Kingston Association is due to the splendid support of the Women's Auxiliary. There is not an association in the country that can compare with the Kingston Association as to the amount of real personal service rendered by an auxiliary. It is exactly what its name infers and has helped in a most satisfactory manner. The ladies have not only given of their time generously but have been ready and willing at all times to meet the emergencies that often arise in association work.

The next big program on for the association will be the Grammar School Athletic meet to be held on Washington's birthday.

Eagle Hotel Sold Today To William J. Turck

New Owner in Possession Immediately After the Sale Was Made—Improvements and Extensions Already Planned by Mr. Turck to Greatly Add to Hotel's Capacity.

The Eagle Hotel on Main street, which has been one of the best and most favorably known hotels in New York state for many years, has been sold by Charles A. Hungerford, its proprietor, to William J. Turck, president of the Kingston Trust Company, who took possession at noon today immediately after the sale was made.

Important changes, improvements and enlargements are contemplated by the new owner which will solve the hotel problem in Kingston a problem which threatened to become serious with the increased traffic due to the widespread attention which the Catskills and the Shawangunks are attracting as summer resorts, and the publicity which has been given to the Rondout Creek Bridge as part of the improved state highway system.

Daniel H. Hurley, who has been associated with the Eagle during the past six years, has been retained as manager by Mr. Turck.

Humors For Many Years.

The Eagle Hotel since its erection in the early 80's has been a famous hostelry whose popularity never waned. After the present building was erected in the early 80's, the hotel for some years was conducted by the late Benjamin J. Wynn and his son, the late James S. Wynn, under the firm name of B. J. & J. S. Wynn. Later for a number of years it was conducted by James S. and Alonzo E. Wynn, who sold it in 1908 to Charles A. Hungerford, who has conducted it successfully since that time.

The history of Kingston for nearly forty years has been closely identified with the Eagle Hotel, which has entertained peacefully over a person of prominence during that time. It has been the scene of innumerable public functions and gatherings and within its dining hall have been held many notable banquets. Its comfortable parlors, halls and foyer have witnessed public and other gatherings which have become historic. Every tourist and every commercial traveler who visits this section of New York state bears witness to its excellent management and service. Among the traveling public, the broad veranda of the Eagle Hotel is known equally with the famous verandas of the biggest hotels of Saratoga.

CALLS LABOR CAMP DANGER SOURCE

City Judge Schrick Seeks Remedy For Contracting Company Discharging Laborers Who Become Ill—Taken Up With State Health Authorities.

Wednesday City Judge Harry E. Schrick took up with Health Officer Frank A. Johnston the alleged practice of the Ulen Contracting Company, which operates a labor camp at Shandaken, in discharging laborers who become ill. The practice has been occasioning the city and county considerable expense.

Judge Schrick states that the men when discharged come to Kingston and become vagrants and sources of danger to public health through infectious diseases. He calls the attention of the health officer to specific cases that have been brought to his attention, and asks if something can not be done to compel the Ulen Company to take care of its sick and not turn them loose on the public.

This morning Dr. Johnston took the matter up with State Sanitary Inspector Laddlaw of this district.

SENATE HOUSE PROPERTY IN FIRST CLASS SHAPE.

Except a Fence Which Will be Repaired.

Last fall the state department of public buildings at the request of Judge Clearwater, president of the Senate House Association, thoroughly repainted all the wood work of the exterior and interior of the building and had the necessary repairs made to it. Also at his request the Hon. Frank M. Williams, state engineer, had the property carefully surveyed and an elaborate map of it made, showing the lines of the building, the boundaries of the real estate, every tree and structure. This being the first map of it made by the state, it was upon a large scale, minutely indicating all features, and was filed in the state engineer's office at Albany. A copy with a full description of the state's title to the land has just been received by the judge, with the compliments of the state engineer. In addition, on the judge's recommendation, a new flag pole of Maine spruce was erected to take the place of the one blown during the equinoctial storm last September.

The Senate House property now is in the finest shape it has been since the state owned it, with the exception of the fence on the Fair street side. The department of public buildings expressed their regret that they did not have the money at their disposal to replace the old fence with a new one, and have promised to do this at the earliest possible date. Governor Miller, the state engineer and the superintendent of public buildings all are deeply interested in the old building and its collection. The curator of the Heye Indian Foundation of New York city visited the Senate House recently and requested a loan of some of the articles made by the Esopus Indians which belong to the collections gotten together by the trustees of the association. The judge informed him that long ago they had adopted the policy of declining to loan any article for the reason they had discovered that persons who borrow antiquities had the unfortunate habit of never returning them.

"YANKI SAN" WON FAVOR ELSEWHERE

Student and Teacher Producers at High School Express Same Results When Operetta is Given Here Friday.

The operetta, "Yanki San," which will be produced at the Kingston High School auditorium Friday night by pupils of the high school, accompanied by the high school orchestra, has created more interest than any amateur performance which has been given in Kingston in a long time and there is every indication that it will attract as large an audience as any entertainment which has been given there since the construction of the building.

Not only is the operetta pronounced one of the most tuneful that has been produced in recent years, but its settings will afford a charm which often is lacking in amateur productions. The interest taken by the other schools in the production is indicated by the work of pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades who under the direction of Miss Pierce, supervisor of drawing, are producing all the cherry blossoms and cherry branches which are characteristic of Japanese scenery and naturally are shown in abundance in an operetta whose scene is laid in the land of the Mikado. The grade pupils who have been assisting in this work will be privileged to attend the final rehearsal which will be held at the high school auditorium on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Carnival lights, covered with Japanese lanterns, will shed a soft radiance over the various scenes of the operetta and wires are being strung and lights installed today by the Kingston Gas & Electric Company.

Arrangements were made today with the Kingston Consolidated Railroad Company to have an ample number of trolley cars in waiting at the close of Friday evening's performance for the accommodation of those who attend.

All speaking parts in the operetta are in charge of Miss Carter, instructor in elocution at the high school, and costumes are in charge of Miss Mary E. Noyes, of the high school faculty. The musical direction will be under C. R. Spaulding, supervisor of music in the city schools, who with Mrs. Spaulding wrote the music for the operetta, and Mrs. Spaulding will act as accompanist. The orchestration is snappy and brilliant.

"Yanki San" has been produced in many colleges, high schools and academies and always has received unstinted praise. Last year it was produced under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding by the pupils of the Catskill High School at Allentown, Pa., and received high commendation. The Morning Call of Allentown, after praising the individual solo selections, said that the greatest beauty of the operetta came with the chorus and mass singing of forty voices; the song "Yanki San" opened and closed the operetta and sent the audience away humming its melodies.

Those who have been privileged to witness rehearsals of the high school cast, chorus and orchestra are enthusiastic in their predictions of "Yanki San's" reception by a Kingston audience Friday night.

ACCORD.

Accord, Feb. 16.—The government through its issuance of treasury savings certificates has taken one of the greatest forward steps in being of direct financial benefit to each individual in the nation. It is now entirely unnecessary for a single person to lose the interest on even a small amount of money. By investing in the certificates all danger of loss is avoided as they are registered at Washington. If allowed to remain for five years the interest rate is about 4 1/2%. If withdrawn before maturity the rate is about 3 1/2%. Therefore whether one desires to invest either for a few months or for the full term there is nothing to lose and everything to gain. PRODUCE MARKET

New York, Feb. 16.—The state department of farms and markets reports there was practically no demand of state cabbage and potatoes this morning.

Barreled apples and sacked onions and carrots from upstate sections were in moderate supply. A grade, 2 1/2 inch Baldwins sold at $7 to $8 per barrel. The best upstate yellow onions brought $8 to $8.25 per 100 pound. Ordinary $7 to $7.50. Carrots brought $3 to $3.25 per 100 pounds.

In the week ending February 11, approximately 456,370 pounds of cheese were received in New York. About half of this amount, or 228,185 lbs., came from state sources. Wisconsin was second with 109,199 lbs. Illinois came third with 101,613 lbs. Since January 1, approximately 677,973 lbs. have been received on the local markets as compared with 4,689,965 in the same period last year.

KIWANIS TO ATTEND BOYS' WELFARE MEETING.

The Rev. Raymond P. Ingraham, a guest at the weekly Kiwanis Club meeting today at the Y. M. C. A., read a poetic warning against the bugs that lurk in food which might have resulted in a lot of poor appetites instead of laughs and it been given before rather than after the luncheon.

The club decided to attend the boys' welfare meeting at the high school February 24 in a word. At this meeting a report will be made by the state officers who conducted the vocational survey here, and Cameron Beck will give one of his enlightening talks on boys' work.

The attendance was a bit over 70 per cent, and this is expected to be bettered as a result of a protracted attendance contest about to be put on.

Accompanied by Balfe's orchestra and puppets from the president's heavy pipe there was unusually snappy singing.

Program for Nursing Class.

The program for the free nursing class which was postponed from last evening to next Monday evening will include a special talk by one of our physicians probably Dr. John G. O'Leary whose subject will be announced later. There will be on the stage or platform a demonstration of making a bed with the patient in and there will be continued instruction for the class members in temperature taking and practical bed-making.

Clearing the Streets.

The Board of Public Works has a number of rigs removing the snow from the main business streets. Superintendent Scott Van Kuren on Wednesday had his men busy cleaning the cross walks and catch basins in anticipation of an early thaw.

TEX RICKARD IS INDICTED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 16.—Tex Rickard, fight promoter, was indicted today by the grand jury on a statutory charge brought by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Two indictments were returned, each charging assault and rape in the case of Alice Rick and Sarah Schoenfeld, 15 year old girls.

Rickard will be arraigned late this afternoon.

An announcement was made early today that Rickard had resigned his position as manager and match-maker for Madison Square Garden, and that John Ringling had been elected president of the Madison Square Garden Company.

Frank E. Coulter, who acts as manager of the Garden and secretary to Rickard, later announced that the promoter would neither affirm nor deny that he had given up his lease on the Garden and would no longer be connected with it in any capacity. He said Rickard will issue a statement in a few days.

SNOW MAKES
WORK IN N. Y.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 16.—Yesterday's record snowstorm slackened to flurries during the night and today had ceased entirely being replaced by brisk cold weather.

Sixteen thousand unemployed found jobs at $5 a day struggling to clear the sidewalks and crossings. Great motor ploughs were used in the streets. New Yorkers clad in overshoes and galoshes, skidded over slippery pavements to their work.

NOW DEMAND PIPE POCKETS

Philadelphia Newspaper Declares Up-to-Date Women Insist on Them in Their Garments.

New suits will have to possess a novel feature if up-to-date young women are to be satisfied. The pipe pocket should be considered in creating all feminine garments of the future.

Perhaps it is the effect of gaining the suffrage, so that they feel they must go on to wider freer conquests, but, anyway, certain it is that the girls are getting tired of cigarettes and are turning to good old fashioned corncob pipes as a source for the language of modernity, says the Philadelphia Ledger.

Some time ago several young women in New York decided that cigarettes were too expensive and that they ought to join the great world movement for financial conservation by substituting pipes for the more delicate joys. But at that time ordinary pipes were not tried, usually small, indylike ones being selected.

Now, however, substantial corncobs, cheap, picturesque and nonbreakable, are the favorites.

"The corncob pipe is unpretentious, respectable and conservative," one of the corncob devotees explained. "Many of our great grandmothers smoked corncobs. Especially is this true of those of us who had southern great grandmothers. There is something like a Bolshevik about a corncob, but we feel that in smoking corncobs we will be back on the safe foundation of good old fashioned Americanism. The people who are all fussing about the good old days will be pleased and will feel that the country is safe."

Any way, PROPELLER IS GONE

Dispute Now Is Whether It Was Torn, Bitten, or Blown Off, But It Is Missing

What happened to the starboard propeller of the United Fruit liner Catmones, recently arrived at New York from Central American ports and Havana, puzzled her skipper, officers and passengers, who discussed the mystery since the ship threw it off on the afternoon of Wednesday, January 19, in the midst of a blizzard and started whirling, leaving pitching, tossing, rolling and doing other things that no healthy ship does all at the same time.

Capt. Harry Spencer stopped the liner and the chief engineer examined the starboard propeller. He found that one of the blades had been torn, bitten or blown off. Some surmised that a sea serpent might have nibbled at the propeller and others said outright there was no doubt a steel-eating Caribbean shark had bitten off the blade.

Captain Spencer denied these theories, declaring the blade had been blown off by the force of a subaqueous earthquake as the Catmones began rocking violently a moment after the mysterious force was lost. And there the matter rests.

A Brief Triumph.

The most amusing moment of my life happened during my college days, writes a correspondent. We were all sitting at the dinner table of the college boarding house, each trying to outdo the other in intellectual remarks. I had just finished what I considered a particularly bright comment. I lit a cup of coffee to my lips with an air of triumph when suddenly the chair I was sitting on collapsed and I sank to the floor, allowing the cup of steaming coffee to pour all over my face and clothes.

THE LOBBY MENACE.

Attention is once more called to the increasing boldness and the sleepless activity of lobbyists by the following reported from the Virginia legislature: "Resolved, by the House of Delegates, that the clerk of the House be, and that he is hereby, authorized and directed to take the measurement of and furnish to each member of the House a luxurious set of artificial whiskers, appropriately and becomingly designed, for the purpose of disguise, to facilitate ingress and egress from the House without recognition by the various lobbies. Resolved further, That the cost of such paraphernalia be paid by such lobbies."

This is a significant protest, even though in the form of a solemn jest. If mere state legislators are pursued and pestered to the extent that this indicates, what of the senators and representatives at Washington, where there are said to be no fewer than 150 lobbies whose agents are amply supplied with both funds and brazen assurance. Federal legislators whose being chased all over Washington need more than artificial whiskers to escape the sentimentalists, Socialists, cranks, get-rich-quickers and job-hunters who are determined to devise more and more ways of restricting the people's liberties, spending the people's money and increasing the burden of taxation. They need the courage in the face of threats to tell these outside meddlers to go about their business. Ours was intended as a government by duly elected representatives of the people, but it is in danger of becoming a government of lobbyists in the pay of special interests with no official standing.

TIMELY WARNING.

When Justice Clarke of the United States Supreme Court asked the New York Law School alumni whether the legal profession is rising to the situation, he pictured a pretty difficult situation. "To have millions of men and women idle and in want, and agriculture in greater distress than ever before, in this the richest farm country in the world"—a world that "has fallen into international anarchy"; to be in danger of seeking to live in that world "without the friendship of other nations"; to be "at the beginning of an experiment of conducting representative government with an electorate very much larger than has ever successfully governed itself in the past under that form of political organization"—an electorate whose mere size requires such large political expenditures that "there will necessarily be brought into conspicuous operation the oldest and worst foe of free government, unless some new method of informing citizens can be devised; to face all these untoward conditions when, by the Eighteenth Amendment, "respect not only for that law but for all law has been put to an unprecedented and demoralizing strain."

Yet Justice Clark sees in these new conditions "opportunities for pioneer and constructive thinking and action and service equal to it not greater than that of which the lawyer-framers of the Constitution made so much for us and for all men." It is evident that in his view, however, the extent to which the opportunity is seized is limited, for he confesses to astonishment at the trivialities presented for the consideration of the Supreme Court, and refers to a misplaced ingenuity that is converting lawyers into "casuists rivaling the Middle Ages schoolmen in subtlety of distinction and futility of argument."

Like Chief Justice Taft, Justice Clarke wants greater simplicity of legal processes and restricted possibilities of lawyers' over-subtleties and designing delays. Conditions have changed, but the needs of a hundred million people are the same as were the needs of the three million people of the republic's early days; they want now what they wanted then—"that comfort and safety which it should be the first purpose of every government to provide." And not the least of the opposing obstacles is the legal subtlety which—to quote Justice Clarke—"would expand the powers of the Federal Constitution so as to equal the current of taxes and the punishment for crimes imposed by state and national laws, and to erect barriers against every change proposed in the name of progress." Justice Clarke's notable utterance is nothing less than a virtual indictment of a considerable part of the legal profession, but, rightly viewed, it is pessimistic only in its convincing demonstration of the urgent need of reform.

What do you know about Nature Subjects? Send any questions of general interest to the Nature Notes Department of this paper. Look for answers in this column.

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. Please inform me if any male birds relieve the female by sitting on the eggs and also if the gender does this?
2. Is the soft shell crab a special variety?
3. Is there any truth in astrology?

Answers in Tomorrow's Nature Notes.

Answers To Previous Questions.

1. How old is the ostrich when it first begins to breed?
In the wild state the birds are four to five years old; but in captivity, where they are usually fed richer food than they would get in a state of nature, their physiological process is hastened and they become mature earlier. Domestic ostriches will breed when two or three years old.

2. What is the most harmful insect in the world?

It is harmful if you mean destructive to vegetation, probably the Hessian fly, Cecidomyia destructor, takes the prize. It attacks wheat principally, also rice and barley. It has been a pest in America for a long time, supposedly coming from Europe with Hessian soldiers and their wheat-straw bedding. A costly pest all over Europe, and has reached New Zealand.

3. I have a turtle the size of a silver dollar, with a dark shell with black dots. The underneath is gray. I keep it in a pan of water and sand, and it completely buries itself in the sand. What kind of a turtle is it, and what will it feed on?

From the fact of its burrowing, we suppose it is a small mud or musk turtle. (Their plastron, or under shell, is dull yellow, but we suppose an individual might vary in tone.) It must be kept in tepid water or it will not feed. Try bits of chopped fish-food, or fresh meat. Some turtles relish a little crisp vegetable matter, as celery, lettuce, or will eat insects.

ANDREW COOK TELLS HOLY NAME OF LINCOLN TRAITS

Among Them Were His Piety And Tolerance.

Over a hundred and fifty men of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society listened to a very interesting and scholarly address on the subject of Abraham Lincoln at the monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Cook traced the career of the great American from his birth and early years in Kentucky up to the time of his assassination. He called the attention of the men to the fact that Abraham Lincoln while not an educated man in the ordinary sense of the word, had given us at least two masterpieces of English prose in the Gettysburg Address and the Second Inaugural Address, both of which were quoted by the speaker. The fact that the martyr president was tolerant and liberal in his views and his respect for the religious opinions of others was evidenced in his strong personal friendship during the Civil War for the then archbishop of the diocese of New York, Archbishop Hughes.

Archbishop Hughes was selected by President Lincoln to go to the court of Napoleon III of France to urge that the Confederate States be not recognized as was threatened at that time. Mr. Cook related also a story of an invitation to attend a state dinner which had been extended to the Archbishop and which the Archbishop declined to decline for the reason that it fell on Friday and he felt that as meat would probably be the principal course he did not wish to cause embarrassment by remaining from eating it as required by the laws of the church.

In reply to his note, the president stated that the eminent churchman need have no fear on that score, as he, the president, had seen to it that fish would be provided for those who desired it.

The speaker also drew attention to the fact that while some had stated that Lincoln was a non-believer or an atheist, his public utterances contained innumerable references to the Deity and requests that the people of the country should invoke the blessing of Providence and its guidance in the dark days of the Civil War.

Mr. Cook quoted "Marse Henry" Waterson's characterization of Lincoln as that which summed up the life of the great emancipator.

Said Waterson, "Lincoln was a man inspired of God."

After Mr. Cook had concluded his remarks a rising vote of thanks was tendered him.

The president, Mr. Ward, announced that in the near future a smoker would be held to which the members might invite their friends to a very interesting program. It was also announced that on Sunday evening, March 12, solemn services will be held in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the establishment of St. Joseph's Holy Name Society.

Is this the Third Influenza Wave?

Is the type of heavy cold now prevalent a true influenza? Doctors disagree.

It will be remembered that after the terrible epidemics of 1918 and 1919, it was predicted that "waves" of influenza would recur, milder each time, until humanity should have acquired immunity against the disease.

Science has not yet found the germ, nor medicine the cure. But we have learned better how to avoid influenza, grip and pneumonia.

The value of Vicks as an aid in preventing these diseases is explained below.

Avoid Influenza---Grip---Pneumonia

Apply Vicks to help avoid infection.
Use Vicks at the first sign of an oncoming cold.

MOST medical authorities now agree that Colds, Grip, influenza and Pneumonia are all germ diseases—most commonly spread by breathing in the germs. If the system is in good shape—the membrane of the air passages in a healthy condition—these germs do not breed.

In fact the germs of all of these diseases are frequently found in perfectly healthy persons. It is only when the bodily resistance is lowered—as by a cold for instance—that they are able to harm us.

Avoid Sneezers and Coughers

It is best to keep away from the sneezers and coughers in the street cars and public places, or if you must meet them, insert some Vicks in the nostrils before you start out. On returning home, melt a little Vicks in a tin cup or a spoon and inhale the vapors.

Opposed to Bacteria

The ingredients of Vicks are not only antiseptic, but rubefacient—that is, they summon the blood to the tissues where applied and this free blood circulation is nature's best method of repelling germ infection. Also Vicks spreads a protective film over the membrane and furthermore is opposed to the growth of bacteria. In short, we believe you have a much better chance to avoid infection by these numerous germs if you have Vicks in your nose.

Adopt the DIRECT treatment for all cold troubles

ABSORBED, like a liniment, and, at the same time, INHALED, as a vapor, Vicks reaches immediately the congested, inflamed air passages.

The Ingredients of Vicks

Since the dawn of history mankind has been searching nature for remedies against cold troubles. The knowledge gained thru a thousand years has come down to us today. Vicks contains the best known remedies for these troubles, some of them of great antiquity. Menthol, for instance, comes from Oil of Peppermint which was grown in Egypt three thousand years ago and whose virtues are described in the old Icelandic books of the 13th century.

The highest authority on drugs and their uses is the U. S. Dispensary. We give below a few extracts from the Dispensary on some of the ingredients in Vicks.

MENTHOL—"It is actively anti-bacterial. It is employed for its antiseptic and anesthetic influence in coryza, pharyngitis and laryngitis."

CAMPHOR—"Has a peculiar and agreeable effect on the mucous membrane—relieves congestion and inflammation—is a powerful stimulant to the respiratory centers."

OIL OF EUCALYPTUS—"Germicidal, antiseptic and stimulant—largely used in chronic bronchitis and infections of the upper respiratory tract—its vapors are very efficient."

OIL OF THYME—"This drug is a powerful antiseptic with wonderful healing properties, especially in congestion and catarrhal conditions of the nose and throat."

OIL OF TURPENTINE—"Its vapors are an excellent remedy for, and highly beneficial in, various forms of bronchial and lung troubles—has powerful healing, antiseptic properties."

NO ICE BRIDGE AT RHINECLIFF

Superintendent of Public Works Scott Van Keuren for safety's sake took down the ice bridge at Rhinecliff today. The ice is breaking away along the edge of the dock and although there were sixty foot sticks of lumber on the bridge the ice broke down at the ends where they laid out the logs. To stop sleighs and autos from going on the ice at the bridge a man was stationed there all Wednesday night by Supt. Van Keuren. He stated that although the ice bridge was barricaded and there were two big signs bearing the word "danger," Wednesday people persisted in going over the dangerous spot.

A Mother's Love.

Liberty, Kan. Advance.—John Warren of Nashua says an old black hen at his home has taken upon herself the task of mothering a litter of ten pigs, clucking and scratching away for them, and when they lie down she makes a strenuous effort to spread her wings over them.

Now, isn't that just like a hen? Here all the world is hollering for fried and boiled eggs for breakfast, and she's raising pigs!

Daughter—Everett kissed me last night.

Mother (Indignantly) That is outrageous. Did you sit on him for it?

Daughter—I did.

A man may be wise and never know it; a fool will soon find it out.

SENATE PRIES INTO 4-POWER TREATY

League Democrats and Irreconcilables seek light on details of the treaty—may prevent ratification.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Feb. 16.—The four-power Pacific treaty was again the subject today of close scrutiny and considerable debate when the senate foreign relations committee resumed consideration of it.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking Democratic member of the committee, continued to express dissatisfaction with what he described as the lack of available information regarding the secret negotiations which led to the making of the treaty.

Senator Walsh of Montana and other Democratic senators who still reflect the League of Nations views of former President Wilson, were said to share Hitchcock's dissatisfaction, and to be prepared to join him in inquiring further into the treaty.

It was the understanding of several of the committee members that Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, committee chairman and member of the American delegation; Baron Admiral Kato, head of the Japanese delegation; and former Premier Arthur James Balfour, chief spokesman for the British delegation to the armament conference, were principally responsible for the original draft of the treaty.

He had expected, Hitchcock explained, that the secret negotiations arising from the treaty and the supplemental agreement to eliminate the Japanese homeland from it, would be fully set forth in the minutes of the secret sessions of the conference which were laid before the senate by President Harding when he submitted the seven treaties and twelve resolutions evolved by the conference.

The complete absence of any record of the circumstances and conditions under which the treaty was entered into, and under which President Harding and Secretary Hughes disagreed as to whether it concerned the Japanese homeland, Hitchcock said, was a surprise to him and other Democratic senators who were seeking enlightenment as to how far the United States was bound by it.

Hitchcock said that it was his purpose to press for immediate consideration of his resolution calling upon the president for complete information regarding all secret negotiations and private conversations regarding the treaty unless such information was forthcoming at today's session of the senate foreign relations committee.

Republican "irreconcilables," including Borah, of Idaho; Brandegee, of Connecticut; Moses, of New Hampshire; and Johnson, of California, who are members of the committee, said they were entirely in sympathy with the purpose of Hitchcock's move.

It was understood that they were not satisfied with the explanation made by both the president and Senator Lodge that the Pacific pact does not involve the use of force, and that they were prepared to offer a reservation expressly stipulating that under no circumstances would the United States be required to use its man power in order to live up to the treaty.

"HOOD" THE GREATEST UNIVERSITY PROBLEM

Says President Farrand—Laws Can't Control Public Opinion.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Speaking here today to members of the Cornell Club of Rochester, President Livingston Farrand of Cornell University said that no amount of legislation will ever be able to control public opinion. He declared that there was no use operating in the clouds, and admitted that the greatest problem of every university of the present day, is the alcoholic problem.

He said that it was not so much a matter of over-drinking with the undergraduates, as it is the stuff that they are drinking today.

Fourth Binnewater. Feb. 16.—Friends and neighbors of Mrs. William Esslinger, who has been ill for several months, will be glad to learn that she is in a serious condition. We hope, however, that she may rally again.

We take this opportunity to again remind the people of this vicinity and surrounding places not to forget the pound social to be held Saturday evening, February 18, at the home of Mrs. Theo. Menthen, Fourth Binnewater. The admission is a pound of anything the individual may wish to bring. Refreshments will be served. A good time is promised to all who attend and we hope everybody will be there.

The parties who have bought the Elliott farm, arrived last Friday to take possession. We surely regret losing the Elliott family as neighbors and hope they may locate nearby.

Mrs. Elliott and daughter have been very active as church and Sunday school workers and will be greatly missed.

The Mercury Athletic Club met last Friday evening to arrange for a basketball team. The club is still without a regular meeting place but hope in the near future to be able to secure a desirable building. Several new members were added at the last business meeting.

Lewis Lasher, Jr., is busily engaged in getting out lumber which we understand is to be utilized in the construction of a wide porch on the front of his home which will not only add to the looks but grant comfort and coziness.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. Theodore Merriweather who has been confined to her home with an attack of that popular malady, the grip, is again able to be out.

Union Men Will Hold their Agony at St. Mary's Hall this evening, to the music of Father's organ. This oratorio will play tomorrow night at the Assembly House at the same hall.

VILLA COLD TO OBREGON FOES

Former Outlaw Seizes Model General and Turns Him Over to Federal Troops Who Execute Him.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Mexico City, Feb. 16.—Invitations to Francisco Villa, or "Pancho" as he used to be known in the days of his outlawry, to join the revolutionary agitation against the Obregon government, have fallen upon deaf ears for the former bandit-rebel now looks with a stern and disapproving eye upon anything that opposes law and order.

Villa's loyalty to the government is more notable in contrast with the wave of anti-government agitation now sweeping some quarters. It is reported that "Pancho" is set at rest any anxiety that may be felt towards his attitude, will shortly come to Mexico City to reaffirm his support to the Obregon regime.

General Antonio Ruiz, who has just been executed in Chihuahua, for plotting against the peace and dignity of the state, was delivered to the federal authorities by Villa. Ruiz had gone to Villa's ranch at Cantillo to seek "Pancho's" cooperation in an anti-government plot. The former rebel chieftain declared that his first citizenship duty was to the state, seized the unsuspecting Ruiz and turned him over to the federal troops.

PRINCESS MARY'S MOTHER SUPERSTITIOUS ABOUT DATE

Had Wedding Day, Predicted Fair, Chosen.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, Feb. 16.—Superstition on the part of Queen Mary was responsible for February 28 being fixed as the wedding day of her daughter and Viscount Lascelles. It was learned today that the queen's favorite belief is that "happy is the bride upon whom the sun shines." Above all, she wanted a really fine day in the middle of an English winter for the marriage. She expressed her wish to the king, to Princess Mary and the court officials and gained her point. Experts of the air ministry and scientists famed in meteorology throughout Great Britain were promptly consulted. They agreed that February 28 promised to be the kind of day the queen wanted. The date was fixed accordingly.

Preserving Communion Silver.

Since the introduction in most of the Evangelical Churches of the individual communion cup, many of the older churches have discovered that their ancient silver sacramental cups have disappeared. A movement has been started in New England and in the south to preserve these old cups by donating them to some well conducted museum. Twenty-seven prominent New England Churches have found that their old communion service has been lost, and over one hundred others have presented their silver to the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, at Worcester, Salisbury, Providence, Hartford and other places.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, Feb. 16.—The stock market showed a strong tone at the opening today. U. S. Steel made a new high record for the year, selling at 99 1/2, an uptick of 1/4. Baldwin Locomotive was 1/4 higher at 195, while Crucible Steel showed a loss of 1/4 at 51 1/4. There was a good demand for the railroads, Chicago & Northwestern advancing 1/4 to 68 and Rock Island showing a gain of 1/4 to 56. Mexican Petroleum was 1/4 higher at 124. Marine issues were active and strong, Marine preferred advancing 1/4 to 72 and American International showing a gain of 1/4 to 45 1/2. Studebaker started 1/4 higher at 55 1/4.

There was a mixed tone to trading on the stock exchange during the forenoon, reflecting the general adjustment of values to newly created conditions, and each group of stocks moved independently of others. In Seneca Copper there was continued liquidation, it falling 1 1/2 to 12. Pool liquidation was indicated by the trading in a number of other issues, among them Martin Parry which declined from 29 3/4 to 27 1/2. Chandler was also in supply and after selling at 64 1/2 dropped to 62 1/2. U. S. Steel moved up to 99 1/2, and then reacted to 90. Mexican Petroleum gained 1 point to 124 but lost this advance at the end of the first hour. Baldwin Locomotive made a gain of 1/4 to 195 then reacted to 194.

Bullish activities in the afternoon were concentrated in a few stocks. Steel common and Mexican Petroleum were the center of interest. Many of the active issues were in supply at concessions.

The market closed steady; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

TO HOLD EUCHRE AND DANCE AT EDDYVILLE.

The euchre and dance under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of Sacred Heart Church at McNamee's Hall, Eddyville, Tuesday evening, February 21, gives promise of being a big social success. The committee is putting forth every effort to make it a real reunion of present as well as past residents of that community. A number of whom now living at South Rondout, Kingston and Rifton have already purchased tickets.

The prizes are numerous and beautiful, many being useful as well as ornamental. Special prizes will be awarded to the non-players.

The refreshment booth under the supervision of "Our Mary" whose hospitality is unbounded will be overflowing with goodies, both dainty and substantial.

Dancing, after the games, to all the latest music interspersed with sets whose familiar call of "Swing on the Corner" will make the old folks young again.

The Rifton bus will make a special trip to accommodate the guests.

YOUNG JUDEAS.

The Young Judeas have received and accepted excellent offers from the champion Young Judeas of New York city for a titular match to be played in New York city March 19. Schofield, of the Midgots, and Kanzer, of the Judeas, were the leading point getters with 8 and 9 points respectively, the scoring being made by the caking of fouls. Dederick, Stumpf, Brown and Hasbrouck all regulars in the Midgots line up were in the game with their usual brand of hard basketball and the passwork that they exhibit is pleasing to behold. Reuben, one of the best Co. I regulars, was in the Judea line up and it was his spectacular recovery of the ball at crucial times that kept the score within reasonable bounds. Levy, Markson, Lehner and Balzam displayed very well the training that they have received from their coach. The scores:

Wesley and White Will Tour Over the Keith Circuit
Wesley and White, Kingston's favorite laugh producers, who played the Orpheum Theatre last week, have received contracts for an extended tour over the B. F. Keith circuit. They have been residents of Kingston over six years, and have their own home in Connelly. Wesley and White have been playing the theatres of Kingston for the past eighteen years, and will also be remembered for their services at the Knights of Columbus Welcome Home of our soldiers at the armory; also at St. Peter's Hall they rendered their services, and for the Odd Fellows. Way back on Saturday, October 10, 1896, they played the Masonic Theatre, Ellenville, and Leland Opera House, Albany, November 9, 1896, with Edwin Hanford's Shamrock Co. They have traveled all over the country, but Kingston always appealed to them, so much so they decided to locate here, and have not been sorry for their choice, and while on the road, will speak proudly of Kingston and our new bridge.

	Price eight months ago	Price before Feb. 13, 1922	Price today
The Twin-Six Touring . . . .	$6000	$4850	$3850

Other Twin-Six models show proportionate reductions

In addition to the reductions made in the price of the Twin-Six, Packard Truck models EC (2-2½-ton, solid tires) and EX (2-2½-ton, pneumatic tires) are reduced from $3500 to $3100 and from $4000 to $3500, respectively. The price of the Packard Single-Six, already twice reduced, remains unchanged, with the probability of an advance later.

No motor car in the world today offers equal value with the Packard Twin-Six, the new low price of which represents a total reduction of more than 35 per cent in less than eight months.
